WILMINGTON PLAZA OPENING SOON

The DeMoulas Shopping Center scheduled to open August 26 has postponed their opening date for a few more days in order that the huge parking area will be completed. Scenes above show the vast shopping area in the main building and the seven check-out stations that will facilitate a speedy exit for customers convenience.

TOWN ATTEMPTING TO LIFT ATTACHMENT

The writ of attachment placed against the former town manager Calabrese will be assumed by the town of Wilmington, if it can be possibly done. A technicality as to whether Calabrese was acting within his capacity as town manager was raised by acting town Counsel and at this writing Mr. Buzzell is being contacted for a ruling.

The incident of last April 15, when Calabrese authorized the digging of a ditch across Andover Street was done with the knowledge of the town officials, the fact that he drove his car across the filled in ditch and parked there, causing some difficulty with the Registry Officer who appeared on the scene makes the problem a bit more difficult.

Pending a ruling from Town Counsel Buzzell, the writ of attachment is still held on Calabrese.

DRIVER IN FATAL ACCIDENT FOUND GUILTY

Richard S. Holland of Cambridge was found guilty of operating a vehicle so as to endanger by Judge Henchey of Woburn Court, last week. Holland was involved in a fatal auto accident a few weeks ago, on Main Street, in which a passenger was killed.

Found guilty and fined $100.00, he appealed and was released on personal bail of $300.00.

Sgt. John Imbimbo, along with officers Charles Dolan and Charles Ellsworth and Registry James Manning were the prosecuting witnesses.

SPECIAL TOWN MEETING OVER IN FIVE MINUTES

Monday night's special town meeting was probably the shortest on record with the meeting being completed in a matter of slightly less than five minutes.

Before the meeting started there was a delay of almost an hour before the necessary quorum of 150 voters were checked into the auditorium. Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, Don Kidder and several others made last minute phone calls to induce more voters to attend in order that the meeting could be held.

Following the opening of the meeting by Moderator Simon Cutter, Kidder introduced the new Town Manager Cecil O. Lancaster, adding a little note of humor to the introduction. Kidder said that Mr. Lancaster had planned to give a talk of about an hour and a half, but because of the excessive heat, he had prevailed upon him to just say 'Hello' and save the lengthy talk for another time.

Mr. Lancaster addressed the voters briefly, saying that what he had seen of Wilmington he liked very much. He said that Wilmington is a very progressive town and he will do his best as Town Manager.

The business of the special meeting commenced with Selectman Frank Hagerty reading the first article. This article was to re-affirm and ratify the vote taken at the annual town meeting and re-appropriate the sum of 75 thousand dollars for the construction of a highway garage. 70 thousand of this is to be raised by bond issue and the remaining 5 thousand by taxation. The Finance Committee when called upon, said they approved the article. A vote was called for and the article was approved unanimously.

Selectman Charles Black read article 2 which was to ratify the vote at the annual town meeting concerning the construction of a new police station and appropriate the sum of 75 thousand for that purpose. 70 thousand of this sum is to be raised by bond issue and 4,800 will be transferred from available funds, with the remaining $200.00 to be raised by taxation. Unanimous approval was also given this article by the voters.

A third article calling for rezoning of a parcel of land belonging to John Lucci on a motion made by Don Kidder was passed over by unanimous vote, no action being taken on the article.

The meeting adjourned at 9:04 p.m.

BIKE STOLEN

A bike, owned by Robert Perry of Garden Avenue was stolen at the Silver Lake area on Main Street. It was a Raleigh bicycle and valued at $75.00. Officer Ellsworth is investigating.

SILVER LAKE PASSES TESTS

In an effort to refute the rumors that the Silver Lake was polluted, Public Health Agent, Pat Thebeau has made forty-five separate examinations in three different portions of the Lake. All examinations have proven satisfactory and the water of the Lake has been okayed for bathing purposes.

At Mr. Thebeau's request, the Department of Public Health also made an examination of the water, and found the lake to be suitable for bathing.

STOLEN CAR RECOVERED

A car stolen from North Reading was recovered at the Wilmington-Woburn Line by Officers Langone and Brennan. The car was turned over to its owner.

Pictured above is the Gardner Professional Building, the new home of the WILMINGTON CRUSADER. Located at 281 Main Street opposite the DeMoulas Shopping Center, this location will provide easier access to people wishing to place their items of news interest.

THE LIONS OF WILMINGTON

A group of men, dedicated to civic and public duty, take time off from a busy day to 'stoop to help a child' learn the rules of safe bicycle riding, Saturday, August 22.

The Wilmington Lions Club, in existence for only a few years have engaged in many a civic project, Nationally and Statewide, but their local programs are indeed worthy of words of praise. Unheralded and unpublicized, the Wilmington Lions have helped make life easier for many people here in Wilmington.

Saturdays program is just one of their civic projects. They will teach children the safety rules of sensible bicycle riding, in order that as they grow older, they may apply safety rules to driving a car.

This paper tips its hat to those men of the Wilmington Lions Club who are making our town safety conscious and all in all, a nice town to live in.

TOWN MEETING

When one considers that the Selectmen had to 'chase' up citizens to attend the last special town meeting, Monday night, in order to make up a quorum to open the meeting, it makes this paper shudder.

Lack of interest, warm humid nights and mosquitoes, almost prevented the building of our new Police Station. If interested citizens would visit the existing 'Police Station', tucked away in a corner of the Fire Station, this paper is sure that more people would attend any meeting relative to remedy the situation. Three special town meetings in less than five months is too much to ask of any citizen, it seems.

URBAN RENEWAL?

The opening of the DeMoulas 'Wilmington Plaza' in a few weeks will definitely shadow any further hopes of Urban Renewal in this town. Two long years in the planning, lack of definite information, and failure of the planning consultants to come up with a plan that will meet with the approval of the entire WHA, has allowed the DeMoulas' to follow through with their plans for building a shopping center on Main Street.

Plans call for 18 to 20 stores in the center, to be completed by 1960. Does the town need another shopping center? The First National Shopping Center appears to be in the same position that the Stop and Shop Shopping Center finds itself. They waited too long, DeMoulas is here and the Town of Wilmington will find that their shopping needs will be cared for.

It seems to this paper that The Wilmington Plaza Shopping Center will stand above all others in this town.

HUNTLEY-WHITE NUPTIALS

On Sunday, August 16, Miss Helen Elizabeth Huntley, daughter of N. Harry Huntley of 43 Columbia Street, became the bride of John A. White, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. White of 259 Glen Road at 2 o'clock in the Wilmington Methodist Church. Performing the ceremony was Rev. Richard E. Harding, and soloist was a cousin of the bride, Ruth Woessner.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and she wore a ballerina length gown of imported chantilly lace and and nylon tulle over taffeta fashioned with fitted basque bodice with jeweled sabrina neckline. The bouffant skirt was designed with an apron front of lace and back tiers of nylon tulle ruffles. She wore a crown headpiece with face veil and carried a cascade of white glamelias centered with sweetheart roses.

The bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Huntley, was the Matron of Honor who was attired in a bouffant ballerina gown of blue silk print with blue bow headpiece and carrying a cascade of white glamelias centered with bachelor buttons.

George White, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. A reception followed the ceremony in the vestry of the church.

The bride is employed as a teacher in Wilmington, and the bridegroom is associated with the Clyde Everett Equipment Company in Burlington.

Following their honeymoon, the newlyweds will reside in Wilmington.

BRENDA MC KELVEY FETED

Miss Brenda McKelvey of Border Avenue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McKelvey, was tended a surprise birthday party last night, (Wednesday) in celebration of her 18th birthday.

The guests enjoyed a record hop, and then were served refreshments before taking the guest of honor 'out for the remainder of the evening.'

Many of her friends and classmates were in attendance to extend their best wishes. Included in attendance was: Diane Bailey, Joan Brunelle, Marilyn, Danny and Eddie Forest, Emily Webb, Malcolm Spear, Tommy and Rita Maloney, Charlotte Covielle and Danny Rebal.

CUSHING

Mrs. Isabelle T. (Noyes) Cushing, age 45 of 21 Brand Ave., passed away on Sunday, August 16. She was the wife of Lt. George S. Cushing of the Wilmington Fire Department and mother of Mrs. Joan Doucette of Reading, Mrs. Doris Farlay of Cambridge and Richard, Carol, and George Jr., all of Wilmington.

She was the daughter of Mrs. Isabella Noyes, and sister of Harold Noyes of Lowell, Roy Noyes of Tewksbury, Mrs. Louise Perivolotus of Tewksbury and Mrs. Margaret Van Lanza of Sagamore.

A Solemn High Mass of Requiem was held on Tuesday morning at 8:30 at St. Dorothy's Church, celebrated by Father Tyrell with Father Croke serving as Deacon and Father Palmeri as Sub-deacon. Seated in the sanctuary was Monsignor Shea.

Serving as Pallbearers were: Fire Chief Arthur Boudreau, Chairman of the Board of Selectmen Donald Kidder, Frank Griffin, Joseph App, Raymond Dewhurst and Calvin Drew.

Burial was in the family lot, in the Wildwood Cemetery.

TALK OF THE TOWN

By HANK FILIPPONE

A FRIEND is a nice thing to have, and the value of one was revealed last week when a certain character spoke unkind words about this paper in front of George (God Bless 'em) Spanos. George reared up and administered a tongue lashing to that person, one that observers say they had never heard before. Things have a way of leveling off, as that character is finding out, even he is finding out that people are getting fed up with his way of looking at things. Thanks a lot George, it's people like you that enables a person to keep one's faith in Human Nature.

The interrogation room at the Police Station has a new convenience. The room now sports a screen door to keep-out -- mosquitoes and flies. It also keeps out the fresh air and keeps the warm air in, making the room less comfortable and the new Police Station more looked-forward to!

RAMELING ALONG -- All quiet on the gravel front and we hope it stays that way -- our new Town Manager's interest in flying sure to meet with approval of several of our citizens -- how slick the heat made the newly sanded roads -- what civic organization will sponsor that petition for sanitary conveniences at the Town Park -- (and/or why our Planning Board had never thought of it) -- can't see anything wrong in a shopping center in North Wilmington -- (there is a nice parking lot there) -- why a water bill for the three wettest months of the year is $22.00 and for the driest three months only $4.50 -- the Block Dance that will be held on Labor Day by the local V.F.W. on Weinberg's parking lot -- steak cook-out by the Lions at the home of Roy and Pearl Hersom --- 1959 as an extreme year-weatherwise - (steadiest cold - steadiest warm - steadiest wet and mosquitoes) -- how much land taking will be involved in the Glen Road relocation? --

ANOTHER DAY OF CHEER

Rita Chisholm celebrated her eleventh birthday on August 13. Mrs. Alice Chisholm says, 'here we go again.'

These birthdays come too close together, for when Lester left to resume his duties in the Navy, Rita had her birthday party that afternoon, and her cousin Cecilia Benoit, from Charlestown who was present said that she didn't like the way her name was misspelled the other day.

Mrs. Chisholm said that they had more fun at the party watching Paula Crispo and Tommy Caderio dancing, also young Buddy Chase jumping up and down in his stroller and his two sisters, Karen and sister Chase.

Also the children remarked on how much bigger Elaine Filippone was than all the others present who were her age, so Mrs. Chisholm told them that Elaine had more Cod Liver Oil when she was growing than Rita did so that's why she grew faster.--So they laughed and were satisfied.

The decorations were the same as at her brother Lester's party--chinese lanterns of blue and green, pink and yellow and red and white. The children liked to watch them move when the fan would blow them around.

They enjoyed sandwiches, potato chips, cookies, candy, marshmallows, tonic, ice cream, nuts, assorted fruit, favors and birthday cake --and what not! They didn't want to leave for home until the mothers called to see if the party was over so they finally started for home at 6 o'clock, with Ralph Chisholm chauffeuring some to their home as there were quite a few little ones.

Rita thanks all the children for their lovely gifts she received. If Rita had her way she would have had half the town at her party, for she is like her mother who hates to leave anyone out.

When someone mentioned Guns, the children thought it was real guns, but Mrs. Chisholm stepped in and said, 'Oh No, they are our neighbors and their names are Joyce, Charlene Debby, Janice and Maureen Gunn. Others at the party were Claire and Robert Gagnon, Leonard Filippone, Michael and Maureen Kazynski, Lillian Mc Laughlin, Mary Ann Albanese, David, Michael and Chucky Connelly, Claire and Franny Chisholm from Tyngsboro.

Helping Mrs. Chisholm were Kathleen and Doris Bickford and Alice Marie Chisholm.

WATER MAIN SPRINGS LEAK

The water main crossing over Nichols Street Bridge sprung a leak and the water department worked throughout the night in a successful attempt to stop it.
Evidently caused by the vibration of traffic going over the bridge, a section of pipe which comes out of the ground to cross over the bridge became loosened at the joint, causing the leak.

Many thanks are also due to the numerous business people of our community for the fine contributions which brought us well over our anticipated goal.

LIONS CLUB OF WILMINGTON

BICYCLE SAFETY DAY: On Saturday, August 22, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. the Lions of Wilmington are going to conduct a Bicycle Safety Day. The youngsters are requested to report with their bicycles to one of the following places: North Wilmington Parking Area across from Elia's Market; Silver Lake Area in front of the Mildred Rogers School; John Lucci's Market Parking Area, Lowell Street and the Parking Area of the Old Age Housing Area, Deming Way, Burlington Avenue.

Members of the Wilmington Lions Club will be on hand to place Scotch Lite Tape on the fenders of the bicycles and also to distribute literature with reference to the use of the bicycles.

The following is a little story that the Lions would like to suggest that the parents read to their children or to have the children read it themselves:

When you were very young, your car was a kiddiecar. Then you rode a tricycle up and down the sidewalk. Maybe you had a shiny fire-truck, with a bell, ladders and pedals. Or a scooter with red disc wheels and mother let you ride around the block and across a couple of streets into the park.

Now you have a bike and permission to ride where you please in the neighborhood. Soon you'll want to use the family car. You'll want to make plans for a car of your own within a short while.

All of your life you have some kind of machine on wheels at your disposal. When you keep it under control, it is your servant. When you let it get out of control, it can be an instrument of destruction. Every machine on wheels you have owned is a trainer for a bigger, more powerful machine to come, just as a trainer plane with dual controls prepares a pilot for a giant airliner.

Your BIKE is your trainer for the car you will drive someday. If you learn to handle a bike properly, we believe you will learn to handle a car safely. The purpose of Bicycle Safety Day is to give you the information which, coupled with your own common sense, will make you a better bike rider so you will be a better car driver.

The following members make up the Safety Day Committee:

Al Epstein, General Chairman; Donald Kidder, Chairman; Mel Southmayd and Webb Hall.

THE OTHER DAY

A friend was telling us some interesting facts that are not so well known about bees, at least not so well known as the one that couples the bees with the flowers.

One of the things that we didn't know was that some species of tropical bees produce a poisonous honey. Another one we didn't know was that good honey is not the exclusive product of bees, but that many species of wasps, and some ants also produce a good honey.

It is said that there is one species that must be pretty smart because they literally make a bed of roses. They line their nests with cuttings from rose leaves and petals.

There are thousands of varieties of bees, but only fourteen families, two of which are the honeybees and the bumblebees, the types most of us are familiar with, that live in highly regimented colonies, and live by strict rules of government within their colonies. Their honey has been one of man's delicacies from ancient times. There are indications that the earliest Egyptians and Greeks practiced beekeeping and noted their example of good organization in their work and lives. So they have been an industrious model for man for many centuries, and in our business we try to follow their invariable object lesson for accomplishing good for others.

NATIONAL FOUNDATION APPEAL

A growing deficit in the treasury of the Middlesex County Chapter of the National Foundation has made necessary an emergency appeal in August, according to Mr. Sidney Kaizer, Fund Chairman.

The National Foundation Emergency Patient Aid Fund has been drained by current epidemics in Kansas City, Mo., Des Moines, Iowa, and other stricken areas. The Middlesex County Chapter funds have been depleted because of "The burden of Polio from previous years" according to Mr. Kaizer. "Every day we go deeper into debt" the local polio leader said, "and there seems to be no way out except to have a brief emergency appeal this summer. We have some 1,100 patients on chapter rolls. We are now $112,000 in debt. By the end of the year we will be at least $150,000 in debt. We cannot ask local hospitals and medical services to wait any longer.

"We are grateful to all the county residents who contributed to last January's March of Dimes, but the financial burden here in Middlesex County has been tremendously increased in recent years, especially since the 1955 Epidemic. Now we must go to the people again and ask for additional funds to pay hospital and medical care bills for patients" Mr. Kaizer added.
